Case No. 13-1106 RS

- (a) Identify the person;
- (b) State which responses and subparts thereof he or she assisted in preparing;
- (c) Provide a brief statement of the general nature of his or her knowledge, and any special schooling, training or experience he or she may have.

Ron DeClue - Accountant for said business owner. He has 40 years experience in accounting dealing with all types of businesses. He holds a BS degree in Business Administration with major in Accounting, Enrolled Agent, and Accredited Tax Advisor. Assisted owner in preparing responses to the following questions.

Exhibit C

ANSWER: Copies of income receipts from salvage vendors to attempt to identify scrap metal sales from parts sold at retail and wholesale. Exhibit A is copies of receipts as documentation with recap of scrap sales. Exhibit B is a recap of scrap sales with percentages. Petitioner generally holds an inventory of 100 to 200 salvaged cars until the market is prime. Also, saleable parts are entered through salvage software on the internet and held for a short period. If not sold, parts are then thrown in with scrap.

3. For the audit period, what percentage of your revenue was earned from auto parts taken from salvaged vehicles in your inventory?

ANSWER: Approximately 90% during audit period, but equipment and building were purchased to get into scrap metal business, and auto parts percentage declined to 72% in 2013.

4. For the audit period, what percentage of your revenue was earned from reclaimed scrap metal taken from salvaged vehicles in your inventory?

ANSWER: Approximately 10% during audit period, but equipment and building were purchased to get into scrap metal business, and scrap metal percentage increased to 28% in 2013.

5. For the audit period, what percentage of your revenue was earned from liquids retrieved from salvaged vehicles in your inventory?

ANSWER: No receipts were located for the Audit Period. Estimated – less than ½ of 1%.

6. For the audit period, what percentage of your revenue was earned from body parts taken from salvaged vehicles in your inventory?

ANSWER: Question not understood. Assume the same answer as #3, as Auto Parts and Body Parts would be the same thing.

7. For tax year 2013, what percentage of your revenue was earned from auto parts taken from salvage salvaged vehicles in your inventory?

ANSWER: Approximately 72%

8. For tax year 2013, what percentage of your revenue was earned from reclaimed scrap metal salvaged vehicles in your inventory?

ANSWER: Approximately 28%

9. For tax year 2013, what percentage of your revenue was earned from body parts removed from salvaged vehicles in your inventory?

ANSWER: Question not understood. Assume the same answer as #7; Auto Parts and Body Parts would be the same thing.

10. For tax year 2013, what percentage of your revenue was earned from liquids retrieved from salvaged vehicles in your inventory?

ANSWER: 2 receipts for $164.50. recorded in non-taxable sales – less than 1%.

CHECKLIST FOR REQUIREMENTS

- Complete each area on the application; birthdates, social security numbers, and residence addresses of all owners must be recorded.
- Complete the salvage business name and address. The complete business name must be shown. A post office box number without a street address will not be accepted as an actual business address.
- Complete the salvage business name and mail to address, if appropriate. You must include a letter from the local postal authorities stating they cannot or will not deliver mail to the actual business location.
- Complete area 16 – Inspection/Certification. An authorized law enforcement officer or designee MUST complete this section. A salvage business must be inspected by the Missouri State Highway Patrol or authorized employee. If the business is located in a first class county (Boone, Buchanan, Camden, Callaway, Cape Girardeau, Cass, Clay, Cole, Franklin, Greene, Jackson, Jasper, Jefferson, Platte, St. Charles, St. Louis, St. Louis City, and Taney), an authorized city policeman who is employed in the same city the business is located may complete the inspection. Certifications may not be completed by a sheriff or marshal. (Reference Sections 301.221 through 301.227, RSMo).
- Signed application by business owner.
- Current photograph of the bona fide place of business (building, lot, and sign).
- Complete a criminal record check. Each owner, partner or principal officer must either submit a current criminal record check made by the Missouri State Highway Patrol or submit a fee of $10 for each record check and the department will have the record check completed. NOTE: If any owner, partner, or principal officer is a resident of a state other than Missouri, a current criminal background record check from your State Highway Patrol or Criminal Investigation Bureau is required.
- Copy of the permanent order and photograph of the business' temporary sign, if applicable.
- If applying as a used parts dealer, a copy of the applicant's Missouri Retail Sales Tax License must be submitted. If applying as a salvage dealer and dismantler, a copy of the applicant's Missouri Retail Sales Tax License must be submitted, or a statement signed by the owner, confirming the business sells parts on a wholesale basis only must be submitted.
- Submit fee listed on front of form if renewing existing license. If applying for a new salvage business license or changing type of business, refer to enclosed instructions for licensure and criminal background check fees.
- One check or money order for licensure, and record check fees made payable to the Missouri Department of Revenue

Note: The Missouri Department of Revenue may electronically resubmit checks returned for insufficient or uncollected funds.
